

ADVENTURE DAY

Pleasant Middle School

May 31st

Our students will be participating in an exciting adventure program on May 31st. The goal of these challenges is to create a unique learning environment for building character and teamwork skills through trial and error in a safe environment where making a mistake leads to opportunities to work together to accomplish goals and to grow as individuals.

Activities include: High Ropes Course, Rock Climbing Wall, and GaGa Ball. This will be a very active day. Make sure to dress comfortably. Kids will need tennis shoes (enclosed shoes) for the climbing activities.

If your family is undergoing a financial hardship, your child may be able to participate at no cost. Please call Wes at 614-348-8869 for information on how to register for a scholarship.
